nee Mabel Christensen.

CHRISTENSEN-BLAKELEY WEDDING AND RECEPTION

A pretty wedding of the month occurred last Wednesday, August ninth, when Miss Mabel Christensen became the bride of Thomas G. Blakeley, the ring ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christensen in Wilson Lane, by Reverend George F. Lowe of the First Baptist church.

The Christensen home and the lawn surrounding were very prettily decorated for the nuptial occasion. In the parlor, where the wedding ceremony occurred, a profusion of varicolored sweet peas and dahlias were artistically arranged while on the lawn baskets of flowers and potted ferns were placed in effective style. Brilliant Chinese lanterns were suspended from the trees and created an attractive lighting effect.

The wedding occurred early in the evening and a pleasant reception followed.

The bride was prettily gowned in white silk crepe-de-chine and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations while her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Blakeley, was attractive in pink crepe-de-chine. She also carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Robert Christensen, Jr., and Reverend Lowe of the First Baptist church spoke the beautiful ring ceremony. As the bride party entered the parlor, Miss Ellen Meissner, pianist, and her two brothers, violinists, played the Mendelssohn processional march. At the close of the ceremony they gave the Lohengrin selection.

The remainder of the evening was spent on the lawn, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served. Pleasing musical selections were given by several of the guests during the evening among which were the vocal numbers by Mrs. Carl Blakeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeley received many beautiful gifts with the congratulations of a host of friends. They will make their home in Ogden at 2303 Mabel avenue, where they have an attractive bungalow.

The groom is a chemist for the Ogden Wholesale Drug company and is well-known and respected in this community.

Those present at the wedding were: Messrs. and Mesdames William Dick, J. G. Parley, H. T. Goe, J. W. Peters, A. McMullen, William E. Butterfield, E. Y. Waldron, John Myers, Wm. G. Wilson, Dr. Marshall, R. G. Moulding, Charles Swan, L. Zitzman, F. Telleasen, Ed. May, A. Noble, T. Grant, W. G. Chapple, Reverend and Mrs. G. F. Lowe, F. Tabor, George Farr, Charles Empey, Axel Jensen, Fred Wing, M. C. Blagoy, R. G. Blakeley, Leo Christensen, Robert Christensen, M. H. Thomas, T. M. Lauridsen, Harry Creamer, Charlie Tribe and the Mesdames S. S. Stewart, A. Jensen and Ellen Woods. Misses Jean Wilson, Grace Atkinson, Margaret Dills, Anna Jensen, Myrtle Middleton, Viola Johnson, Ellen Morley, Myrtle Shields, La Rene Zitzman, Ivy Williams, Dorothy Goodman, Florence Zitzman, Nora Blair, Ellen Larsen, Monica Shields, Realla Newton, Bessie Ahern, Ellen Melsner, Margaret Blakeley and Verna Chipman.

Messrs. R. T. Christensen, Bert Noorda, Clarence Empey, Neil Gregory, R. Morrissey, E. W. Collins, Marion Brown, S. Jensen, E. N. Freeman, Percy Cook, Oscar Keeter, Charlie Hume, George Brooks, Adamson, George Melsner, Joe Arnold, Robert Blakeley and William Blakeley.

THE MISSES BOYLE ENTERTAIN.

At the home of Wallace Boyle on Adams avenue, the Misses Alvira and Clara Boyle entertained a number of their friends at a card party. Delicious refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was had. Honors were given Miss Alta Calvert and Miss Gladys Peterson. In addition to the above named the Misses Catherine Monon, Agnes Calkins of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Dills, Jennie Calvert, Ethel Smythe, Vera Frey, Ruth Bailey, Margaret Long, Gail Healy, Maude Healy and Mrs. Laurence E. Boyle were present and voted the hostesses very charming entertainers.

EIGHTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

At the old homestead, for fifty-five years her home, more than one hundred relatives, neighbors and old-time intimate friends gathered Thursday by special invitation to do honor to one of the sweetest, brightest, and cheeriest of pioneers, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, of Farr West.

In the beautiful grove of tall Box Elder trees, set out about fifty years ago by Mrs. Fisher and her late husband, Robt. Fisher, who passed away twenty-two years ago, the banquet table, ornamented with beautiful old flowers, were spread.

At the right of the hostess was seated Mr. Wm. C. Parker and wife of Riverdale. Sixty-five years ago, in the little church at Hart Hill, England, Mr. Parker, as the groom's best man was present at the wedding ceremony of Mrs. Fisher and her late husband, and close friends have been families during all these years.

Ere the feast of all good things was partaken of, Mr. Parker, who is in his ninetieth year, touchingly invoiced our Heavenly Father's blessing, bringing tears to many eyes, and his daughter, Miss Ethel Parker, sang, "Greetings to the Old Folks," which added another touch of pathos to the memorable occasion, long to be cherished by all who were privileged to be there.

Mr. and Mrs. Spracher, and their two sons, of Burley, Idaho, came down for the occasion, Mrs. Spracher being one of Mrs. Fisher's daughters. A second daughter, Mrs. Ralph Wardle, of Tonopah, was unable to be present. The following sons also, with their families, were there to do honor to their sweet little mother:

Robt. Fisher of Rexburg, Ida., wife, four daughters, two of them married, Mrs. J. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Widdison and babe.

Mr. John Fisher, wife and three of their ten charming daughters, Miss Florence, Miss Bernice and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and babe, all of St. Anthony, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fisher of Burley, Idaho, and son Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher of Farr West, son, three daughters, Misses Foren, Allegra, and Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Markham and babe.

Mrs. Leah Fisher, widow of the eldest son, Lorenzo, was also present with her daughter, Miss Viola and sons. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fisher and two children.

Other relatives noted were Messrs. Wm. H. and R. W. Brereton, Miss M. E. Brereton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ward and son, and Mrs. Warwick, all of Provo; Miss Mayme Hall of Mant, Mr. J. F. Little of Venice, Cal.

Among the many friends present were Mrs. John Thurston of Littleton, Mrs. Sam Slaughter of Salt Lake City, Grandpa Spracher and wife, Grandpa Thos. D. Brown, Grandma Rawson, the wife of Bishop Chugg, Mr. Thos. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor, Mrs. Andrew Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stuart and family and others too numerous to mention.

With social intercourse and songs the happy hours fled by only too speedily and the sun was setting ere the guests departed, wishing their hostess, as well and active as any of them, many joyous returns of the day.

ATTRACTIVE OGDEN GIRL WEDDED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Of especial interest to Ogden's society folk, and all who were favored in the acquaintance of Miss Beverly Alexander Riley, was the wedding of that charming young lady and Henry Ross Taylor, which occurred last Tuesday, August 8, at San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Camden Riley, and formerly was an instructor at the State School for the Deaf and Blind in this city. She became very popular in Ogden and Salt Lake society circles and was of sweet personality.

The wedding last Tuesday was solemnized by Reverend Guthrie of the San Francisco First Presbyterian church, at 5:30 o'clock, after which an elaborate wedding supper was held at the St. Francis. The bride was attractive in a rich dark blue traveling suit and large white picture hat. She carried a lovely bouquet of Ophelia rosebuds and maiden hair fern and was attended by Miss Irene Short of Los Angeles, as bridesmaid. The groom's best man was Mr. Bert Sterry, a popular business man of San Francisco.

On Wednesday at high noon Mr. and Mrs. Taylor sailed on the steamship Matsonia for Honolulu, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home in Thane, Alaska, where Mr. Taylor has the superintendency of Colonel D. C. Jackling's gold mine interests, after October 1st.

The Standard joins the many Ogden friends of the bride in extending congratulations.
